All the experts gave their best to conduct this highly beneficial course. Students of all streams i. e. B.A., B.Sc., B.Com., B.H.Sc. participated in the programme.

The lustrous and richly patterned fabrics seen today are only possible through surface ornamentation of the fabric.

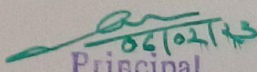

Decorated and colourful clothes are vogue all over the world. Along with the development of civilization, people's taste and sense of beauty has changed. And according to this demand, outer, colour, attractive print that is to say surface ornamentation on fabric has become necessary in fashion designing. It is mainly required to make clothes bright and attractive.

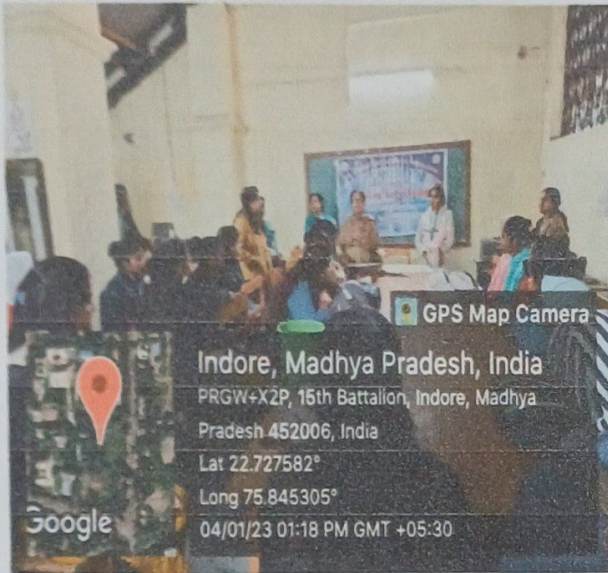

This is a skill development programme and best part is the students can easily start an industry with a very small capital. They can take orders online and sell it on time.

On completion of the course an exhibition was organized. All the articles printed during the course were exhibited. Students and members of staff appreciated and rated due articles to be excellent.

On due occasion of the closing ceremony our principal Dr Chanda Talera Jain congratulated the students for this course. She wished them good luck for their future prospects. Prof. Jyoti Jagwani addressed the participants. She motivated the students for self employment. Formal vote of thanks was given by Dr Vandana Gupta. Dr Anuradha Awasthi conducted the programme.
